OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 18, 1863

WEAK MEN IN CONGRESS.—The Boston Traveller is not very complimentary to Congressmen. It says—"to be a member of Congress does not put a man at the head of his constituents, or any portion of his countrymen — The general run of Congressmen is far below the general run of citizens in all good qualities,—in morals, in intellect, in intelligence, and in every thing else that is respected or respectable. Our troubles are in no slight degree owing to the miserably low grade of mind and morals that has characterized the national legislature for some years."

There is too much truth in the above, and there will be, until the people refuse to support the tools of political managers, made candidates not because of fitness, but to carry out the schemes of those who regard offices as the means of accomplishing private purposes rather than the public good Our own State has not been altogether free from this sort of management. Incompetent men, to whom very few would have entrusted the charge of private business, have been exalted to stations which they have disgraced, while the claims of qualified citizens have been rejected, until integrity and ability have seemed to be insuperable objections, rather than grounds of merit. We trust the time will shortly arrive when this system will be abolished—when the people will repudiate the plots of petty cliques, no matter to what party they claim to belong, and thus secure the services of public agents who are honest, faithful and capable.

Fair Warning.

We have just received Gen. Wright's proclamation, and publish it, commending it to the attention of those who love the rebel flag, and have long looked for its display, as well as to those who have sneered at the recent manifestations of treason in California. Gen. Wright is not apt to be frightened at shadows, and his works show that he believes that it is time to be ready for the ungodly plots of secessionists on the Pacific Coast. We trust there will be a prompt and hearty response to his patriotic appeal, and that every loyal citizen of Oregon will unite in a pledge to stand by the Government and its lawful officers, in the hour of peril, and forever:

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE PACIFIC COAST:

You are far removed from the scenes of war and desolation; a war which has drenched in blood the fairest portion of our beloved country; a war to preserve our Union and our free institutions, against the assaults of traitors—traitors to their God, and traitors to their country; who, disregarding the example and precepts of the great Washington, seek to destroy our very existence as a nation. During the war which has been raging for the last two years in the Eastern States, you have enjoyed all the blessings of peace and prosperity within your borders. No family hearth has been made desolate. The wailings of the widow and orphan are rarely heard in this favored land.

So far you have been exempt from the scourge of war. Are you prepared, then, to sacrifice all these blessings, to prove recreant to yourselves, to the nation, and to the high and holy trust transmitted to you by the founders of our Republic? No! Already I hear the welkin ring with shouts of acclamation "The Union shall be preserved." Although the great mass of the people on the Pacific coast are eminently patriotic and devoted to the Union, yet, fellow citizens, we must not disguise the fact, that we have traitors in our midst who are doing all in their power to involve this country in the horrors of civil war. To all such persons I say pause and reflect well, before plunging into the yawning abyss of treason; an indignant people will rise in their majesty, and swift retributive justice will be your certain doom

Done at the Headquarters of the Department of the Pacific, this 7th day of April, 1863. G. WRIGHT, Brig Gen., U. S. Army, Comdg.

WHY DON'T THEY RESIGN?—It is surprising when the office-holders on this coast are so embarrassed by the depreciation of currency, that not one of them has been compelled to resign. Some of them would not be missed, and we do not believe that it would be difficult to find successors who will take greenbacks without grumbling, and perform the duties of their respective offices with quite as much intelligence and fidelity as are now manifested. We hope none of the "public functionaries" will take offence at this suggestion, or suppose we wish to get the place of any, for we do not like greenbacks any better than they do, but we do sincerely pity them, and as we desire to relieve them and suppose the idea of giving up their unprofitable employment never entered their heads, we take the liberty of offering the hint, so that they may not be compelled to suffer any longer for the public good. We hope they will appreciate our deep sympathy.

A GOOD MAN.—Col. Gilbert, the officer who recently dispersed a convention of copperheads in Kentucky, assembled in pursuance of a call for a democratic convention, is reported in the Eastern papers to be a nephew of Gen Cass, and has never been anything but a democrat of the straightest sort Will the rebel sympathizers denounce his action in breaking up a treasonable assemblage, as another abolition attack upon the freedom of speech? Has Col. Gilbert become a negro-worshipper, or does he deserve the thanks of the whole land for checking the efforts of rebels, and strangling in its cradle the serpent of Kentucky secession?

That Code.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

Some people would like to see that valuable code of laws of Oregon commented on in a recent number of your paper They infer from your statement that it goes into effect on the first of June, by virtue of a proclamation of the Governor Is that delegated legislation, or merely a mode of designating a day for the law going into effect? If that be not a dispensing power, contingent on some event unknown to the Legislature and which may never occur, what is it? The Governor not being a part of the Legislature, may not enact a law,—approval is only the sanction of what has been enacted In this case he acts as the agent of the Legislature They could have more conveniently appointed the Printer himself, who would know when the required number of acts could be published all over Oregon This publication is an essential act, preliminary to the validity of every law — Why could not an intelligent Legislature fix the period in the law itself, and thus save any doubt arising out of a possible mistake of the agent, and the greater doubt as to their power to have any agent at all in declaring the time when it should take effect

It is said by some that this code was done not by the Legislature, nor any member there of, but by the job, by a lawyer who was delegated by the assembly at a previous session, who were delegated by the people to do that kind of work themselves

There is a celebrated edifice known all over the world as 'The House that Jack Built.' That is a pretty good house yet and will be known and valued long after all human laws now in force, and law makers now extant, shall be pretty much obsolete The particular style of that structure—whether mediæval, gothic, renaissance, or modern—has not been settled, but the architect will forever enjoy a fame, which the dense gloom of ages has denied to him of Babylon, the Sphynx and the Pyramids. Jack did build that house It was not built on the sand, nor of any fragile or combustible material He was a master workman, as all the historical associations and consequences now do and forever will attest. That sack of "malt," and every glass of lager beer made therefrom, the 'rats" the tabby "cats" the dowys, 'Tray, Blanche and Sweet heart," the "cow," maly and crumply, the "maiden all forlorn,' an inhabitant possibly of some of the old States, (certainly there are none here,) the 'man all tattered and torn," some honest miner, perhaps fresh from the diggings, the "priest" may not be found, at least none of the kind that officiated at that marriage,—all these pile up the proofs higher than the house itself, that the construction of it exhibited all that is beautiful in form, and a wisdom and far reaching design far beyond any work of legislative talent and learning got up in latter days We cannot hope for this code that it will live forever it would be unreasonable to attribute to it the perfection of a permanent work, or that its fate will be better than others of its class, all of which have served merely as targets for small law makers to bore through year by year It did cost some labor to make it, some pangs in its forming, and some paper and ink to publish it. Doubtless it is an approach towards system, little of which existed before, and it has some suggestions and changes which, on trial may be found useful There are some things in it that look like retrogression towards safer ground —you mention divorce restrictions the testimony law is not one,—that was well enough before,—this change will fall at the next session

When the code does come, Mr. Editor, for mercy's sake let the world know, lest the agony for a new book die out before it comes to light. QUIEN.

SEVERE, BUT TRUE.—The Richmond Enquirer seems to have a special contempt for all the propositions of Northern Democrats, who desire peace for party purposes In a recent number it thus ridicules the speech of S S Cox, an Ohio Copperhead, who tried to seduce South Carolina from her Confederate allegiance by promises of Democratic sympathy

The seductive song of the impassioned swain means "Help us, Carolina, to a democratic ticket for next Congress, and you shall have part of the stealings. Have we not always, Oh, child of the sun, lived and loved, and stolen together? How often have our hands met in the same pocket of the innocent public, and fondly pressed one another?—Without our dear South, the Democratic party can plunder no more Without thee that once unterrified party pines in solitude and despair: it is one blade of a pair of scissors, it is the half of a hook and eye" So sings the swain of Ohio Will Carolina harken to the gay seducer.

THE TERRITORY OF IDAHO.—Our esteemed friend, W. H Barnhart, now at Washington, furnishes us full particulars of all that relates to the Territory of Idaho The boundaries of the new Territory include all that portion of Washington Territory lying east of Oregon, and all lying east and north of the entire boundary of Oregon. This includes Lewiston Florence, Oro Fino, Elk City and Boise river The bill provides for the usual officers, and a Legislative Assembly consisting of a Council and House of Representatives The Council will consist of seven members, to serve for two years, and the House of thirteen members, elected annually. Previous to the first election, the Governor is required to have a census of the inhabitants taken, and the representation in the Legislature is to be apportioned as equally as possible The number of Representatives and Councilmen may be increased from time to time in proportion to the increase of population but the former body is never to exceed twenty six, and the latter thirteen members The foregoing embrace all the provisions of the law that are of interest to the general reader — Mountaineer

A TRUE DEMOCRAT.—The secession sympathizers in New Hampshire do not succeed in carrying all the democrats in support of their schemes. Thus, a few days ago while Col George, candidate for Congress, was speaking at Hopkinton, in that State, a democrat who had always clung to the party arose and said "Col George, do you support the Government in putting down the rebellion?" The Colonel replied "I cannot be put down by fighting" "Then," said the democrat, "I separate from you and the party that supports you I go for my country at all hazards and for putting down the rebellion by the sword I am a democrat, if opposition to my country is democracy."

REBEL RESPECT FOR NEGROES.—While some of our officers and men are allowing their prejudices against the negro to lead them into acts of insubordination the rebels are troubled by no such fastidiousness They do not hesitate to associate with the negro when they can further their infamous purposes by so doing. Nassau, that nest of pirates where the rebels are so much at home is the paradise of negroes—negro soldiers negro officers, negro postmaster and negro collector The rebels, we may be sure, put on no airs of insolence to these men there

Letter from Walla Walla

We take the following extracts from a letter from Walla Walla, dated April 11th, 1863

We are constantly learning of thieving movements of the Snake Indians They have been very successful this spring in running off horses and cattle We have just learned that they have run off some eighty head from a drove which started from Southern Oregon for Boise. There is a great deal to be charged in these instances to the neglect of the whites, who think that the country is filled with men going to the mines, so they take little care of their stock, and the Indians constantly on the watch, improve opportunities thus offered to drive many off I shall not be surprised to learn in a few weeks, that we are engaged in extensive Indian hostilities Big Thunder has been among the Snake and Bannack Indians the past winter, and has just now returned to his old stamping ground on the Tapwai and it is even now understood that the Nez Perces will not treat for the sale of any of their lands Lawyer's party may not be averse to selling off the country about Lewiston, but he will be borne down by the public opinion of his tribe, who say, and with truth that the treaty already existing has never been complied with on the part of the United States

When at the Agency last fall I felt mortified ashamed and disgusted with the neglect of the Government and its employees to do justice to the interesting nation of Nez Perces They are noble Indians, simple minded and cannot understand why Government has not fulfilled its obligations to them After a long time a new mill is now running at the Agency But is this for the benefit of the Indians? not at all The lumber is taken away, and the Indians have none to make fences or cabins and their condition has not been improved much for the last fifteen years

The Indians can, if they will sweep this whole valley We have not troops enough in this country

THE MINES

The mining business is opening in a far different style than was anticipated There is no great rush to the mines—at least not comparable with that of last spring This is well The gold is here, but it must be brought out by patient industry A man is not likely to make a fortune in the mines who cannot make a living upon a farm or in a workshop But the mines will be gradually filled with miners The Californians will come as soon as the miners write them favorably from our mines this spring

"The Union as it Was"

One of the most eloquent speeches of the present session of Congress was that of Hon Horace Maynard of Tennessee delivered in the House on the 7th inst

But the Union as it was is a catchword of the hour The Union as it was when? When Washington, to suppress rebellion, sent into Western Pennsylvania fifteen thousand men, under the command of his neighbor and friend General Lee—General Lee, who, could he leave the abode of glory, would smite and confound his traitor son? When Webster and Clay rallied to the support of Jackson, and sent treason, whipped and abashed, to its lair? When Millard Fillmore, called to account for the disposition of his fleets in the harbor of Charleston, replied that he was not responsible for his official conduct to the Governor of South Carolina? Or was it in the waxing and waning days of a later Administration, when treason sat

"Squat like a toad

at the sable ear of Executive power and hatched its mischievous plot in the very corridors of the Presidential Mansion? As it was in the day of its glory and might, or as it was in the night of its weakness and shame? As it was when strong, honest men gave direction to its councils, or as it was when turpitude clamored and took precedence of decrepitude in the conduct of its affairs? For upon this inquiry must largely depend the real significance of this rallying cry—whether it means a re establishment of the flag and a re assertion of the national authority over every rood of our domains, or is but an empty formula, to be interpreted to suit any occasion

The Union as it was! say, rather, the Union as it will be, when, the Constitution, maintained in all its spirit and vigor—even its very forms preserved inviolate, peace restored upon the basis of our indivisibility, the self-protecting power of popular government asserted—our multiplied millions shall present to mankind an example of government mightier, freer and happier than the world has ever seen Then will be realized the conviction of a great English statesman who rising above the mists of prejudice and traditional enmity which have beclouded so many of his countrymen, has asserted the justice and hopefulness of our cause, in words contrasting most gratefully with the ribaldry and cynicism by which we have been so constantly assailed

"I cannot myself believe in such a fate befalling that fair land, stricken though it now be by the hand of war. I cannot believe that civilization in its journey with the sun, will sink into endless night to gratify the ambition of the leaders of this revolt, who seek to wade through slaughter to a throne, and shut the gates of mercy on mankind I have another far brighter vision before my gaze It may be but a vision, but I will cherish it I see one vast confederation stretching from the frozen North, in one unbroken line to the glowing South, and from the wild billows of the Atlantic to the calmer waters of the Pacific main, and see one people and one law and the language and one faith and over all that wide continent, the house of freedom and a refuge for the oppressed of every race!

MAP OF THE PACIFIC STATES.—We have been shown by Mr Thomas H Mills Agent for Oregon, a specimen copy of 'Bancroft's Map of the Pacific States and Territories the British Pacific Possessions and the Sandwich Islands," recently published and handsomely published. From a partial examination of this map, we have reason to believe it quite correct, or at least as near so as it is possible to obtain, under the present unsurveyed and we might say, unexplored state of the vast region of country it is intended to represent. It is a useful map and deserves the attention of those who desire to learn the geography and topography of the Pacific slope

SOME KNIGHTS.—Prof. Myers has got all arrangements completed for a grand entertainment at the Willamette theatre to-night As a sleight-of-hand performer, he has but few equals, and has never yet failed to attract and delight an audience in any place where he has performed; and to witness his feats of strength is alone worth the price of admission Drop in and see him this evening

WISE INDIAN.—A delegation of Chippewa Indians recently in Washington, visited the Treasury Department, and inspected the process of manufacturing greenbacks. One of the chiefs was much interested in the room in which ladies are employed cutting printed notes, and proposed that they should take home with them one of the fair operators, with her table and shears, solemnly remarking, "It is a good thing to have in wigwam"

The Canyon Road

The canyon road, leading from the Plains, is closed up. Why is it? Who did it? Was it the Supervisor, or was it not? That corduroy road, leading up the hill at the foot of the canyon, has been closed up to the great detriment and injury of the traveling community generally. Thousands of dollars have been expended on said road to make it practicable in winter. Will the tax-payers allow it those who have paid their money to build the road? I think not, and further, if the Supervisor allows persons to close up the road at pleasure, anywhere, he will find that the tax-payers will refuse to advance any longer to build roads which are to be subjected to the use of any one who sees it to suit them up.

I hope that the Supervisor will have said road opened at once, and oblige a

CITIZEN.

THE CANNIBALS OF THE ANDES—REMARKABLE ALLUSION TO THE FAIR SEX.—The character of the trans-Andean region of Peru is that of dense forests frequented by a few Indian tribes, who shun the approach of civilized men, and resent an intrusion into their haunts by a flight of poisoned arrows The valleys of the eastern Andes are the most cruel, ill favored and untamable of South American savages. They wander naked through the dense woods by tracts unknown to any but themselves, and are armed with bows and slings. They live on monkeys, birds, bananas and fish. Of these people, called Chunchos, little is known. They are supposed to occupy a large extent of territory within the Brazilian empire, and they are known of cannibalism. Missionaries who have penetrated into their country affirm that there are three tribes, the Antes, the Chunchos, and the Cascibas, which war upon each other solely for the purpose of gratifying their passion for human flesh; but that of cannibalism are seldom supported by many of eye-witnesses, and in countries where animal food is easily procurable they are seldom entitled to credit The Chunchos are said to make an exception in favor of the usages of other tribes they kill female prisoners. This forbearance, however, does not arise from any chivalrous feeling, but from a confirmed belief that women are impure beings, and were created for the torment of man, and that their flesh is to be eschewed as in the highest degree poisonous.—London Quarterly Review.

CURIOSITIES UPON THE TENTED FIELD.—Recently, as the officer of the day was going the rounds on the right, along the Rappahannock, he came in full view of the rebels posted on the opposite side, who, seeing his sash and sword, gave the order: "Turn out the guard, officer of the day." The rebel guard turned out, when the orders again rang across the river "Present arms; shoulder arms; order arms; stack arms;" and the guard, having thus saluted the officer on this side, again dismissed with a loud cheer.—Washington Star

THE DEAD SUBJECTED TO THE NATIONAL DRAFT LAW.—In Boston the City Clerk has to give a permit before a body can be buried in a grave-yard. The question had arisen whether the permit had to bear a stamp, and Commissioner Boutwell has decided that it has so that a man cannot be buried in Boston unless his friends pay a ten cent tax This is running the revenue law "into the ground"

"A man convinced against his will
Is of the same opinion still

Good advice is often wasted, or some folks would look so shabby within a week of putting on a new suit of clothes. In spite of reason and example, many stupidly persist in waiting at the first store they stumble against, and lament their stupidity when too late. To insure a respectable appearance, send your measure to Heuston, Hastings & Co., the great outfitters of Montgomery street, corner of Sutter, San Francisco, and, our word for it, you will not be disappointed Should you prefer it, they will send forward their House in New York, and return the goods made to order, within sixty days of receiving your letter.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can almost confidently say that I have never known any however delicate, to be injured by it in the least I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night, it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses you at much after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored If you have a painful swelling, bathe the part freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced

If you have a severe tooth ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne

If you feel chilly or cold as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea

If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time

THE two WARS IN MEXICO —There is a surprising difference between the results of the American war against Mexico in 1846-7 and the French one now going on The army landed in Mexico under Gen Scott did not number more than ten thousand effective men But with these he captured Vera Cruz, and, advancing into the interior, won the great battle of Cerro Gordo, and captured several important cities, only halting at Puebla There his army was much reduced chiefly by the expiration of the terms of enlistment of the twelve months' men He waited for reinforcements, and on the 17th of August 1847, marched from Puebla with about eleven thousand effective men With this little force (mostly raw troops) he won the victories of Contreras, Churubusco, Molino del Rey, Chapultepec and the city of Mexico When he entered triumphan tly into the capital he had not more than six th usand available men. Scott's forces were debarked near Vera Cruz on the 9th of March, 1847 He entered the city of Mexico on the 14th of September, 1847. The whole campaign, including the delay of nearly two months at Puebla, thus occupied only about six months

The French, with an army originally about twenty thousand strong and lately increased to about forty thousand, have been in Mexico nearly a year. But they have had no decisive victories, have had numerous repulses, and seem further off from the conquest of the country than they did six months ago By contrast with Gen Forey's campaign, that of Gen Scott looks even more magnificent than we have heretofore been accustomed to regard it. The achievements of our little army, most of whom were volunteers look stupendous in contrast with those of the much more powerful army of France, made up chiefly of the veterans of the Crimea and Italian wars

When it is remembered, also, that we had to fight against Mexico united, while there is a considerable party there in alliance with France, the comparison of results is still more striking. Louis Napoleon must be heartily sick of his effort to subjugate Mexico If he reflects, too, that Mexican troops such as he finds so hard to whip, were easily and repeatedly beaten by American troops, he will not be so anxious to extend his intervention machinations to the United States —Philadelphia Bulletin

CONVICTIONS OF NAPOLEON —"I know men," said Napoleon at St Helena to Count de Montholon, "and I tell you that Jesus is not a man! The religion of Christ is a mystery which subsists by its own force, and proceeds from a mind which is not a human mind. We find in it a marked individuality, which originated a train of words and actions unknown before Jesus is not a philosopher, for his proofs are miracles, and from the first his disciples adored him. Alexander, Cæsar, Charlemagne and myself founded empires, but on what foundation did we rest the creations of our genius? Upon force. Jesus Christ founded an empire upon love; and at this hour millions of men would die for him! I die before my time, and my body will be given back to the earth, food for worms. Such is the fate of him who has been called the great Napoleon What an abyss between my deep mystery and the eternal kingdom of Christ, which is proclaimed, loved and adored, and is extending over the whole earth!" Turning to Gen Bertrand, the emperor added, "If you do not perceive that Christ is God I did wrong to appoint you general."

THE CRY OF PEACE! PEACE!—The clamor of the copperhead democracy for peace is giving more encouragement to the rebels than any other one thing, and nothing is more likely to protract the war and render it more fierce and bloody. Bragg and Johnson, the rebel Generals, in recent addresses to their troops, spoke of the peace democracy of the North-west as their friends, and said it was only necessary to break the Federal lines on the Cumberland in order to reach Indiana and Illinois, where the "peace men" were ready to join them and become their allies Thousands of brave and patriotic men will be sent to bloody graves through the aid and encouragement given to the enemy by these treacherous scoundrels These facts ought to be kept prominent, till the eyes of all honest dupes are opened, and false hearted deceivers stand pilloried under the scorn and condemnation of every true Democrat in the nation

MISSOURI ISMS —The Missourians have quite a penchant for curious characterization The members of the Legislature are divided into Charcoals, Clay banks, White-legs and Snow-flakes. The first and last are the extremes of both parties. The "Charcoal" believes slavery a moral enormity, "the sum of all villainies," as well as an impediment to the prosperity of the State. The "Clay-bank" says nothing about its moral character, and some of them absolutely believe it free from moral taint, but a curse to the material interests of the State. The "White-leg" is the strong Union Democrat, who is not considered quite reliable by the more ultra, who are the "Snow-flakes." The "White legs" would support gradual emancipation Then they have two words to express the idea of underhanded plotting—to wit "skullduggery" and "chenanigan."

MARRIAGE BY HABEAS CORPUS —While some of our malcontents complain that they are kept in prison by the denial of the right of habeas corpus, a young fellow in New York recently got his head into the matrimonial noose by means of it Because he loved a poor girl his rich parents enlisted him in the naval service, but his lady love was rich in spirit, if not in purse, so she sued out a writ of habeas corpus, had her affianced brought before Judge McCunn, and there married him in spite of his cruel parents We recently heard of a marriage by telegraph This is a marriage by habeas corpus The young lady would "have the body," and she got it!—Exchange

THE UNION OF THE REBELS —The Louisville Journal has the following

People wonder why the rebels are so united A cotemporary says it is not surprising There is a mysterious cohesion in crime A gang of pirates will stick to each other like burs. A company of bandits will dwell in unbroken concord for years A horse stealing association will be the soul of harmony while there is work to do There was discord even in heaven before Lucifer was expelled, but we have no account of discord in hell

"Devils, with devils damned, firm concord hold
Men only disagree"

Writers in England suggest that a heavy duty be put upon crinoline in order to confine its use to the rich only, so that servant girls and humble people may be spared the danger of getting burnt to death The rich, we suppose, are to be left to their own destruction

The rebels boast of their superior civilization, and yet by their own confession they have concocted a plan to entrap the Apache Indians, under the pretence of making peace, kill all the grown ones, and then sell the children into slavery to pay the expenses of killing their parents!

In France there are now 7 690 convicts under sentence at hard labor, and 1,900 of them are sentenced for life Three-fifths of the whole number are native Frenchmen.

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay a tax of three per cent upon the amount of his income from any source whatever A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes paid, Rents Drayage &c necessary to carry on his business, farm or merchant machinery, and no person has a right to deduct his own labor or any thing else from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid annually on or before commencing January 1st 1863 so that on the first day of December last 1862 everybody should make out a list of their income gains or profits for the last year from all sources of income, such as Dividends and Profits on Bonds and Stocks Insurance Stock, Savings Bank interest &c (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed It therefore behooves every one to have a clear record of the source of his income that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends

For Example:

A man in business must make up the net profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount over $600

A man may outside of his business or and all on income more than his profits in the business nevertheless he must pay tax on all net business profits except the $600 And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed the right personal or family expenses incurred in all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June 1863 And any sum due and unpaid thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD Mass 20th Dec, 1855

DR J C AYER I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness Influenza &c is the inestimable compound of Cod Liver Oil and Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and in my family for the last ten years has led me to possess supreme virtues for the treatment of these complaints FIRTH KNIGHT M D

A H MORTLEY Esq of Utica, N Y writes "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you introduced it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD Miss, Feb 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of the croup Croup, Croup, and I should rest this one of children Was of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M D.

AMOS LEE, Esq Montreal Ill writes, 3d Jan., 1854 "My little daughter, who was confined to the house six weeks, took many medicines without relief finally tried your Pectoral, by the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved the child, and in two days the croup left her entirely, and her cough made me completely well Your medicines are the best as well as the best we can buy and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa., Feb. 6, 1856.

SIR Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section It has relieved several from alarming attacks of consumption and is now curing a man who has for years had an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L PARKS, Merchant.

A A RAMSEY M D, ASHTON, MONROE CO., Iowa, writes, Sept 6 1856 "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are Mine.

We might add volumes of evidence but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cures so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some so hopeless as to baffle reason, but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

AYER HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 6, 1855.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption from which no aid we could procure her much relief she was steadily failing until Dr Swan of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day She is not yet what she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHIELDS, of Shieldsville.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL It is made by one of the most medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Pittsfield Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect Purgative which is known to man Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the usual remedies and that they win unprecedentedly upon the confidence of all men They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure The penetrating properties stimulate the vital energies of the body remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or diseased action into their natural action, and impart healthy tone and strength to the whole system Not only do they cure ordinary complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, safest and most reliable physic that can be used by children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my Almanac, containing directions for their use, and certificates of their cures of the following complaints —

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Erysipelas, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Eruptions which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating it into healthy action, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia, Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on Ask for AYER'S PILLS and take no other. No other they can give you compares with this in intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best and there it is for them, and they should have it.
